Alert

Scripture

- 36 “Now concerning that day and hour no one knows—neither the angels of heaven nor the Son—except the Father alone.
- 37 As the days of Noah were, so the coming of the Son of Man will be.
- 38 For in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah boarded the ark.
- 39 They didn’t know until the flood came and swept them all away. This is the way the coming of the Son of Man will be.
- 40 Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken and one left.
- 41 Two women will be grinding grain with a hand mill; one will be taken and one left.
- 42 Therefore be alert, since you don’t know what day your Lord is coming.
- 43 But know this: If the homeowner had known what time the thief was coming, he would have stayed alert and not let his house be broken into.
- 44 This is why you are also to be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.
- 45 “Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master has put in charge of his household, to give them food at the proper time?
- 46 Blessed is that servant whom the master finds doing his job when he comes.
- 47 Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.
- 48 But if that wicked servant says in his heart, ‘My master is delayed,’
- 49 and starts to beat his fellow servants, and eats and drinks with drunkards,
- 50 that servant’s master will come on a day he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know.
- 51 He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

God's Word - Devoted to Him

JESUS IS RETURNING

*"Of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only."
Matthew 24:36*

When will Christ appear again? Bible scholars don't always agree on the details, but one fact is clear: someday Christ will come again to defeat all the forces of sin and evil and establish His supreme authority over creation. Jesus Himself warned us against trying to set an exact timetable for His return (Mark 13:32). In God's time, this present world order will come to an end, and Christ will return to rule in power and glory and justice.

The fact of Christ's return should fill us with hope and joy and expectation. But it also should remind us of another truth: when Christ comes again, He will judge the world with perfect justice. On that day those who have rebelled against God and rejected His offer of salvation in Christ "will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life" (Matthew 25:46 NIV). These are sobering words, and if you have never turned from your sins and opened your heart and life to Jesus Christ, I pray you will do so now, before it is too late. Don't gamble with your eternal soul!

From: Peace For Each Day
Billy Graham

Isn't it strange? All people neglect their souls until grace gives them the ability to reason. At that point, they leave their madness and act like rational beings, but not before.

Charles Spurgeon

Joyful Giving

Jerry Caven had a successful restaurant chain, two banks, a ranch, a farm, and real estate ventures. Now, at age fifty-nine, Jerry was searching for a nice lakeside retirement home. But the Owner had other plans.

"God led us to put our money and time overseas," Jerry says. "It's been exciting. Before, we gave token amounts. Now we put substantial money into missions. We often go to India.

What changed the Cavens' attitude toward giving? "It was realizing God's ownership," Jerry explains. "Once we understood that we were giving away God's money to do God's work, we discovered a peace and joy we never had back when we thought it was our money!"

Once, a distraught man rode his horse up to John Wesley, shouting, "Mr. Wesley, something terrible happened! Your house burned to the ground!"

Wesley weighed the news, then calmly replied, "No. The Lord's house burned to the ground. That means one less responsibility for me."

Wesley's reaction wasn't denial. Rather, it was a bold affirmation of reality—God is the owner of all things, and we are simply His stewards.

Whenever we think like owners, it's a red flag. We should be thinking like stewards, investment managers, always looking for the best place to invest the Owner's money. At the end of our term of service, we'll undergo a job performance evaluation: "For we will all stand before God's judgment seat.... So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God" (Romans 14:10, 12).
